The Independent Distributor agrees that such information is proprietary and confidential to the Company and is transmitted to the Independent Distributor in confidence. The Independent Distributor agrees that he will not disclose such information to any third party directly or indirectly, nor use the information to compete with the Company directly or indirectly during or after the term of the Agreement.  - C. Both parties may choose to retain their joint Independent Distributorship and operate it as a partnership.
- The divorced Independent Distributor may apply for a new Independent Distributorship without having to wait six (6) months.
- 29.3. Death – upon the death of An Independent Distributor, the rights and responsibilities of the Independent Distributorship may be passed onto the rightful, legally-documented heir as long as that person has filled out a new Independent Distributor application, together with a copy of death certificate.
- 29.4. Disability – should An Independent Distributor become disabled to the extent that he can no longer fulfill the required duties of the Company Independent Distributor, such Independent Distributor's legal representative or conservator shall:
- A. Contact the Company within thirty (30) days of the disability and advise the Company of the Independent Distributor's status and the plans for future management or cancellation of the Independent Distributorship.
 - B. Provide a notarized or court-confirmed copy of appointment as legal representative or conservator; and
 - C. Provide a notarized or court-confirmed copy of the document establishing right to administer the Company business.
- Should the legal representative or conservator plan to continue the business of the Independent Distributorship, then they fill out a new Independent Distributor application, return policy and receive the required training consistent with the disabled Independent Distributor's level at the time of disability. These requirements shall be satisfied within a deadline of six (6) months.

30. Upgrades of Machines

- 30.1. All upgrades of machines need to be authorized by the regional sales manager in charge of the respective sales area. The Company reserves the right to refuse machine upgrades at its discretion.
- 30.2. Upgrades of unused, new machines are allowed within three (3) months of purchase. All requests must be accompanied by a two hundred and forty-two dirhams (AED 242.00) upgrade fee.

31. Sale or Transfer

- 31.1. Third parties who buy any Enagic products do not automatically qualify as Enagic Independent Distributors.
- 31.2. Independent Distributors agree to inform all third parties to whom they sell Enagic products of the facts above and further agree not to promise any possibility of transferring Independent Distributor rights. An Independent Distributor may not sell, assign or otherwise transfer his Independent Distributorship, marketing position or other Independent Distributor rights without written application to and approval from the Company. This clause is also applicable to the transfer of any interest in an entity that owns An Independent Distributorship, including but not limited to a corporation, partnership, trust or other non-individual entity.

- 31.3. The potential buyer must be of similar standing as the selling Independent Distributor. The Independent Distributorship must be offered in writing first to his/ her referrer. If the referrer declines the offer, the Independent Distributor may offer the Independent Distributorship for sale to direct Independent Distributors of the referrer within the same group. An Independent Distributor who sells his/ her Independent Distributorship shall not be eligible to re-qualify as An Independent Distributor for a period of at least six (6) months after the sale.
- 31.4. The Company reserves the right to review the sale agreement and to verify waiver from the direct referrer in the event the direct referrer declines to purchase the Independent Distributorship. An Independent Distributor may not add a co-applicant to their Independent Distributorship and thereafter, remove their name from the Independent Distributorship, as an effort to circumvent the Company's sale, assignment, delegation, or merger procedures. The primary Independent Distributor must wait twelve (12) months after adding a co-applicant to the Independent Distributorship before they are allowed to remove their name from the Independent Distributorship.
- 31.5. It is prohibited to use a sale or transfer to attempt to circumvent Company policy on raiding, soliciting, cross-referring or interference. An Independent Distributor seeking to sell or transfer his Independent Distributorship must acknowledge and agree to Clause 60 prior to the finalization of the sale or transfer of his Independent Distributorship.

32. Rights of the Company

- 32.1. The Company expressly reserves the right to alter or amend prices, Rules and Regulations, Policies and Procedures, product availability and the compensation plan. Upon notification in writing, such amendments are automatically incorporated as part of the Agreement between the Company and Independent Distributor. Company communication of changes may include, but shall not be limited to mail, email, fax, posting on the Company website, publication in company newsletters or magazines, et cetera.
- 32.2. The Company reserves the right to make all final decisions as to the interpretation of the articles stated in this document. The final Company decision based on the interpretation of the articles stated herein is effective immediately. All Independent Distributors are obliged to follow the Company's decision as to the interpretation of the articles herein.

33. Non-Individual Ownership

- 33.1. A partnership or corporation may also be considered as Independent Distributor. However, no individual may participate in more than three (3) Independent Distributorships in any form without express written permission from the Company. It should be noted that any request for more Company approval for An Independent Distributor to participate in more than three (3) Independent Distributorships will only be considered on a case-by-case basis and on the individual merits of each case.
- 33.2. An Independent Distributorship may change status under the same sponsor from individual to partnership or corporation or from partnership to corporation with proper and complete documentation.
- 33.3. To form a new Independent Distributorship as a partnership or corporation or to change status to one of these forms of business, An Independent Distributor must request a change request form from the Company's Office (105 Hassanico Building Sheik Zayed Road Al Barsha First, Dubai, United Arab Emirates). This form must be submitted detailing all partners, stockholders, officers or directors in the partnership or corporation. The partner or officer who submits the form ("Authorized Party") must be authorized to enter into binding contracts on behalf of the partnership or corporation. In addition, by submitting the partnership/corporation form, the said individual certifies that no person with an interest in the business has had an interest in An Independent Distributorship within three (3) months of the submission of the form (unless it is the continuation of an existing Independent Distributorship that is changing its form of doing business).

34. Individual Independent Distributorship

- 34.1. An individual can have up to three (3) Independent Distributorships in the Company. He may not be An Independent Distributor to another Company, either individually or jointly, nor may he participate as a partner, owner, stockholder, trustee, director, or association member, outside his patronage.

35. Entity Independent Distributorship

- 35.1. A Corporate entity can have up to five (5) Independent Distributorships in the Company, as long as they are within the same Independent Distributorship:
- A. Proprietorship – a copy of fictitious name filing must be submitted.
 - B. Corporation: copies of Trade License, Articles of Incorporation and Memorandum of Association must be submitted.

36. Entity Guarantee for Owners

- 36.1. Although the Company allows Independent Distributors the opportunity to conduct their Independent Distributorship as a corporation, the Company is also aware that a corporation is under the control of its owners and principals and that the actions of individual owners or beneficiaries may affect Company's business. It is therefore agreed that in the event where the Independent Distributor is a corporation, the actions of the corporation's shareholders, officers, directors, trustees, beneficiaries, agents, employees or other related or interested parties and the actions of such parties, insofar where they violate the Company Policies and Procedures, shall be attributable to the corporate. In the event that any of the corporation's shareholders, officers, directors, trustees, beneficiaries, agents, employees or other related parties terminate(s) his/their ownership interests in the Independent Distributorship, any breach(es) of the Company Policies, Handbook and Agreement by such parties, insofar where he/they continue to have a beneficial financial interest, either directly or indirectly, in the Independent Distributorship, shall be attributable to the corporation's Independent Distributorship.

37. Members of Same Household

- 37.1. Responsibility – members of An Independent Distributor's household may operate together as under a single Independent Distributorship and may not become separate Company Independent Distributors. A Household is defined as husband, wife, and dependents. It is important to note that children who have attained the age of majority of eighteen (18) years will not be considered to be a part of their parents' household for the purposes of the Independent Distributorship.
- 37.2. The Company recognizes that members of the same household may be involved in direct selling opportunities. Although the actions of the parties are assumed to be taken in good faith, in some circumstances, there might be an abuse of relationships in which the non-company household member is engaged in recruitment, solicitation or raiding of the Company sales organization. Since the household member that has an ownership interest in the Company Independent Distributorship is in the best position to prevent the raiding or cross-referring activities by their members of their household (as defined in clause 37.1), any cross-recruiting activity of the non-Company household member shall be attributed to the household Independent Distributor and will accordingly subject the Independent Distributor to possible disciplinary action or the termination of the Agreement.

38. Foreign Independent Distributors

38.1. A foreign Independent Distributor (outside the Middle East covered countries) will be solely responsible for all applicable taxes, duties, and other fees associated with his Independent Distributorship. The foreign Independent Distributorship is subject to all applicable laws and regulations of his country of residence. The Company is not responsible for any failure by the foreign Independent Distributor to abide by the laws of the foreign Independent Distributor's country of residence or other controlling jurisdiction. While the Company does attempt to provide notice whenever possible, it may not always be possible to do so. Change in Company policy or other actions such as termination may occur without notice to the foreign Independent Distributor.

39. Default in Payment

39.1. An Independent Distributorship will be terminated if An Independent Distributor defaults in payment of product purchases from the Company. For the avoidance of doubt, potential Independent Distributor shall not be required to provide any form of payment or benefit in order to be, other than where payment or benefit is made in relation to demonstration equipment and materials, accepted as An Independent Distributor by the Company. In the event where An Independent Distributorship purchases product, either in the capacity of a consumer or Independent Distributor of the Company, and subsequently defaults on payment, the Independent Distributorship is subject to immediate termination of the agreement. The preceding rule is applicable to An Independent Distributor who is either an individual or to a corporation or partnership Independent Distributor where one of the principal owners' defaults in payment.

40. Disciplinary Actions

40.1. An Independent Distributor's violation of any policies and procedures, the Agreement, terms and conditions or any illegal, fraudulent, deceptive, or unethical business conduct may result, at the Company's sole and entire discretion, in one or more of the following disciplinary actions.

- A. Issuance of a written warning or admonition; and/or
- B. Imposition of a fine, which may be imposed immediately or withheld from future annuity checks; and/or
- C. Reassignment of all or part of An Independent Distributor's organization; and/or
- D. Freezing of annuities for an indefinite period; and/or
- E. Suspension, which may result in termination or reinstatement with conditions or restrictions; and/or
- F. Termination of the Independent Distributorship.

41. Right to Terminate

41.1. The Company reserves the right, at its sole and entire discretion, to terminate any Independent Distributorship at any time if the Company determines that the Independent Distributor has violated the provisions of the Agreement, including the provisions of the clauses contained in this document herein, including as and when these clauses may be amended by the provisions of applicable laws and standards of fair dealings. In the event of termination, the Company shall notify the Independent Distributor by mail at the most current address of the Independent Distributor lodged with the Company.

- 41.2. In the event of a termination, the “Terminated Independent Distributor” agrees to immediately cease representing himself as An Independent Distributor.

42. Termination

- 42.1. When a decision is made to terminate An Independent Distributorship, the Company will inform the Independent Distributor in writing that the Independent Distributorship is terminated immediately, effective as of the date of the written notification. The termination notice will be sent by registered mail to Independent Distributor’s most recently known address lodge with the Company.
- 42.2. The Independent Distributor will have fifteen (15) days from the date of mailing of the registered letter in which to appeal the termination in writing, and provide written response as to the findings of violations by the Company of the Company Policies, Handbook and/or Agreement. The Independent Distributor’s appeal and/or response correspondence must be received by the Company within twenty (20) days of the Company’s termination letter. If the appeal is not received within the 20-day period, the termination will automatically be deemed to be final.
- 42.3. If An Independent Distributor files an appeal in accordance with the stipulated procedures and time period, the Company will review and consider the Independent Distributor’s appeal. In addition, the Company will also consider any other appropriate action, and notify the Independent Distributor of its decision in due course.
- 42.4. The decision of the Company will be final and subject to no further review. In the event the termination is deemed to be final, the termination will be effective as of the date of the Company’s original termination notice. The Terminated Independent Distributor may not be sponsored as a Company Independent Distributor again.
- 42.5. Upon termination of An Independent Distributorship, all rights under the Agreement cease. The terminated ex-Independent Distributor will no longer be eligible for any annuity, bonuses or prizes. The terminated ex-Independent Distributor can also no longer advertise, sell or promote the Company products or purchase products from the Company and any violation of this clause will be sufficient grounds for the Company, at its sole and entire discretion, commence whatever action including but not limited to, legal action, against the terminated ex-Independent Distributor.

43. Patronage

- 43.1. All Independent Distributors have the right to refer others. In addition, every person has the ultimate right to choose his own referrer. If two (2) Independent Distributors should claim to be the referrer of the same New Independent Distributor, the Company shall regard the first application received by the corporate home office as controlling.
- 43.2. As a general rule, it is good practice to regard the first Independent Distributor who has meaningfully worked with a prospective Independent Distributor as having the first claim to patronage though this is not necessarily the sole factor of consideration. Other factors of consideration such as common sense and equitable principles should also be utilized.
- 43.3. The Company may provide the Independent Distributors with various methods of registration or information of newly referred Independent Distributors, including but not limited to, facsimile registration and online registration for the convenience of the Independent Distributors. Until such time as the Company receives a duly completed application, containing all appropriate and required information as well as the signature of the proposed new Independent Distributor, the Company will only consider any application as one which is merely a non-binding expression of interest. Although the Company is attempting to create convenience for its referring Independent Distributors, it is the responsibility of each referring Independent Distributor to cause delivery to the Company of a properly completed and signed Independent Distributor agreement if the referrer is expected to be recognized as the official referring Independent Distributor. For the avoidance of doubt, potential Independent Distributor shall not be required to provide any form of payment or benefit in order to be referred.

- 43.4. There is no “magic” involved in the Company or in any business. Those who sponsor widely but who do not help new Independent Distributors develop their business meet will be met with limited success. Therefore, it is the Independent Distributor’s responsibility to follow through and make sure the new Independent Distributor is properly informed and trained in the areas of product knowledge, the compensation plan, and the professional guidelines of the network marketing industry, the Company Policies, Handbook and Agreement.
- 43.5. When soliciting a prospective Independent Distributor to join the Company’s network program, the Independent Distributor must clearly explain the following:
 - A. Products: type, performance and quality of each product;
 - B. Compensation plan;
 - C. Policies and Procedures;
 - D. Independent Distributor’s rights and duties; and
 - E. Other important items that will affect the judgment of the prospective Independent Distributor.
- 43.6. Independent Distributors should never provide false and/or misleading information in order to encourage the conclusion of a sales agreement or to prevent the buyer from canceling the agreement.
- 43.7. Retail sales are a requirement of the Company’s network program.
- 43.8. Each Independent Distributor must identify himself by name and Company ID number to the prospective buyer.
- 43.9. The Company offers no sales discounts or other concessions, and the Independent Distributor may not offer either. Any discounts offered by Independent Distributors may be grounds for termination.

44. Transfer of Patronage

- 44.1. Transfer is rarely permitted and is actively discouraged. Maintaining the integrity of patronage is absolutely crucial for the success of the overall organization.
- 44.2. Transfers will generally be approved in the following two (2) circumstances:
 - A. In the case of unethical referring by the original referrer – in such cases, the Company will be the final authority; or
 - B. Resigning from the Company entirely – waiting six (6) months to reapply under the new referrer.
- 44.3. In cases of unethical referring, the individual may be transferred with any members intact; in all other events, the individual alone is transferred without any downline Independent Distributor being removed from the original line of patronage.

45. Income Claims

- 45.1. No income claims, income projections, income representation, or showing of Annuity checks (“check waving”) may be made to prospective Independent Distributor. Any false, deceptive or misleading claims regarding the opportunity or product/service are prohibited. In their enthusiasm, Independent Distributors are occasionally tempted to represent hypothetical income figures based upon the inherent power of network marketing as actual income projections. This is counter-productive since new Independent Distributors may be quickly disappointed if their results are not as extensive or as rapid as a hypothetical model would suggest. The Company believes firmly that the income potential is great enough to be highly attractive in reality without resorting to artificial and unrealistic projections.

46. Representation of Status

46.1. In all cases, any reference the Independent Distributor makes to him must clearly set forth the Independent Distributor's independent status.

For example, if the Independent Distributor has a business telephone, the telephone may not be listed under the Company's name or in any other manner which does not disclose the independent contractor status of the Independent Distributor.

47. Judgment and Tax Lien

47.1. The Company will comply fully with any court order or instruction/demand by any Federal Tax Authority, in relation to An Independent Distributor's earnings as a result of his Independent Distributorship relationship with the Company.

48. Subpoenas Duces Tecum (Demands for Records)

48.1. Assuming proper jurisdiction, the Company will comply with all subpoena's duces tecum demanding financial compensation records of An Independent Distributor in his capacity as an independent contractor with the Company.

49. Request for Records

49.1. The Company will comply fully with all requests for records accompanied by a properly prepared and signed authorization by the person whose records are being sought. The Company will comply fully with all requests for records by Government of any country of the listed countries under Middle East agencies with the authority to request such records and accompanied by the requisite legal documentation.

50. Newspaper Advertisement

50.1. Some Independent Representatives use classified advertising in the newspapers to find prospects. The following rules apply – no advertisement may imply that a "job" or "position" is available. No specific income can be promised, and advertisements must contain no misleading facts or distortions of the Company opportunity or product line.

51. Business Cards and Stationery

51.1. Any printed materials, including business cards and stationery, must be approved by the Company in advance. The criteria for approving these materials will include an assessment of the quality of the materials submitted as well as properly checking the adequacy of establishing the independent status of the Independent Distributor.

52. Telephone Solicitation

52.1. The use of the Company's name or copyrighted materials may not be made with automatic calling devices or "boiler room" operations either to solicit Independent Distributors or retail customers. The use of these methods in ways that are legal and the equivalent of the "blind ads" alluded to above cannot be regulated by the Company.

53. Press Inquiries

53.1. Any inquiries by the media are to be referred immediately to the Company. This policy is to assure accuracy and a consistent public image.

54. Endorsement

- 54.1. Independent Distributors may not represent that the Company's program has been approved or endorsed by any Middle East Government agency.

55. Indemnification and Hold Harmless

- 55.1. The Independent Distributor hereby indemnifies and releases the Company, its officers, directors, agents and assigns and holds harmless from and against the full amount of any and all claims, causes of action, judicial and administrative proceedings suits, charges, liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses, including without limitation court costs and reasonable fees and expenses of attorneys and consultants, which are or may be made, filed or assessed against Company at any time arising out of Independent Distributor's business operations and representations made by the Independent Distributor in the operation of his business, arising from the following:
- A. Violation and/or lack of compliance with terms of the Independent Distributor agreement, policies and procedures, rules and regulations, marketing program manual or guidelines or any other directive from the Company as to the method and manner of operation of the Independent Distributor business; and/or
 - B. Engaging in any conduct not authorized by the Company in the Company marketing program; and/or
 - C. Any fraud, negligence, or willful misconduct in the operation of the Independent Distributor business; and/or
 - D. Misrepresentation or unauthorized representation regarding the Company's product or service, marketing opportunity or potential or the Company's marketing program; and/or
 - E. Failure to adhere to the relevant laws of Middle East; and/or
 - F. Engaging in any action which exceeds the scope of authority granted to the Independent Distributor by the Company; and/or
 - G. Engaging in any activity over which Company has no effective control as to the actions of the Independent Distributor.

56. Waiver

- 56.1. The Company does not, at any time, give up its right to insist on compliance with these rules or with the applicable laws governing the conduct of a business. This is true in all cases, both specifically expressed and implied, unless an officer of the Company who is authorized to bind the Company in contracts or agreements specifies in writing that the Company waives any of these provisions.
- 56.2. In addition, any time the Company gives permission for a breach of the rules, that permission does not extend to future breaches. This clause deals with the concept of "waiver," and the parties agree that the Company does not waive any of its rights under any circumstances short of the written confirmation alluded to above.

57. Governing Law

- 57.1. These Policies are governed by the federal laws of the United Arab Emirates (UAE) and the relevant laws of the Emirate of Dubai and shall be governed in all respects there by. The parties agree that jurisdiction and venue shall lie with the place of acceptance of the Independent Distributor application.

58. Partial Validity

- 58.1. If any article or articles of this document shall be held to be invalid, illegal, unenforceable or in conflict with the law of any jurisdiction, the validity, legality, and enforceability of the remaining articles shall not in any way be affected or impaired there by.

59. Non-Competition

59.1. For a term of one (1) year after sale, transfer or termination of the Independent Distributorship, An Independent Distributor agrees that he shall not, directly or indirectly, disrupt, damage, impair or interfere with the business of the Company within Middle East, whether by way of interfering with, or raiding its employees or Independent Distributors, disrupting its relationship with customers, agents, representatives, Independent Distributors, suppliers, vendors or manufacturers or otherwise. "Disrupting" or "interfering" include, but are not limited to, direct or indirect solicitation or recruitment for other direct selling business opportunities or products or services of other direct selling companies.
